Description

Himalayan Salt comes from the Himalayan Mountains in Pakistan. Ethically sourced, these usb salt lamps have been carved into various shapes and themes. They are portable and you can plug into any usb. Himalayan Salt lamps are believed to react with the negative 'ions' that are in the air, but we can't see. They turn them to positive ones. They effectively clear the air of 'electric smog', which is why they are great to have plugged in whilst using your laptop or computer.
